

Group of young researchers within
Associazione Nazionale per l'Ingegneria del Vento
Italian Association for Wind Engineering

The first ANIV-G Meeting was held on 17 Jan 2020 at Politecnico di Milano. More than forty members from sixteen institutions participated to the initiative. In order to promote collaboration between the community, short presentations describing the main activities carried out within each research group were collected in the attached Book of Presentations.

Figure 1 – The birth of ANIV-G.